

BILATERAL TREATY

Bilateral Treaty

Dan Gun Sovereign Nation

"Established in 2022"

In Palawan Autonomous Region

Bilateral Treaty Between Dan Gun Sovereign Nation and

INTRODUCTION

Guided by the UN Charter and the "United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Dan Gun Citizens," this treaty establishes bilateral cooperation to promote self-determination, economic growth, and cultural preservation for 700,000 indigenous people of the Palawan Autonomous Region.

Key UN Articles:

1. Self-determination: Right to govern and develop political, social, and economic systems.
2. Autonomy: Control over internal affairs and financial systems to sustain governance.

Objectives include strengthening bonds, fostering trade, safeguarding intellectual property, promoting transparency, and enhancing public welfare.

PREAMBLE

This treaty is entered into by Dr. Charleston Park representing the Dan Gun Sovereign Nation and

ARTICLES

Article I: General Provisions

1. Purpose:
 - o Remove barriers to integration.
 - o Protect intellectual property rights.
 - o Establish efficient trade and dispute mechanisms.
2. Trade, banking-IBC Act, BioMed Mfg., and Bullion Bank.
 - o Exotic fruits, agriculture products, IBC Act, None Chemical Pharmaceutical Medicine Manufacturing.
3. Term: The Treaty is effective for 20 years and renewable upon agreement.

Article II: Obligations. Each party retains sovereign decision-making rights unless explicitly modified.

Article III: Governance. Heads of state and government manage and oversee treaty objectives.

Article IV: Financing by own Sovereign Nations. Funding for projects will be agreed upon case-by-case as needs arise.

Article V: Indemnification Parties are indemnified against losses if actions are taken in good faith without negligence

Article VI: Dissolution. Termination of the treaty requires mutual consent.

Article VII: Dispute Resolution.

Unresolved disputes are subject to tribal and international arbitration with an agreed mediator.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Parties must maintain proper project records.
2. Invalid provisions do not affect the treaty's validity.
3. Written notices are required for all communications.
4. Governing law: Dan Gun sovereign law and international standards.

CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Confidential information may not be disclosed without prior authorization.
2. Procedures will protect competitive and sensitive information.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the treaty is executed on _____, 2026.

Signed:

Head of Dan Gun Sovereign Nation

His Highness Dr. Charleston Park, Ph.D.

Dan Gun Sovereign Nation

Founded in Palawan Autonomous Region, Philippines (69,000 hectares), granted on February 18, 2025
Population: ~700,000 indigenous people

Cc:

President: Ernest F. Cruz
Prime Minister: Dr. Sean Richard McElhaney
Deputy Prime Minister: Dr. KeunTae Lee
Advisory Regents: Attorney Enrico G. Barin
Deputy Administrator Regent: Mr. Yan RongRui
Sr. Scientist: Uy Montenegro Ulysses